

Class: Ms. Bowen

Date: April 2017

SPECIFIC SKILLS:

Mathematics- Capacity using liters, gallons and picture graphs.
Literature- A Little Maid of Old Connecticut- Reading slowly as to hear and understand the written text.
Handwork- Making puppets for "Pinocchio". Following directions

CONTENT:

Poetry- William Shakespeare
Composer Study- Young Brahms
History- Abigail Adams

MEMORY WORK:

Night by William Blake
Shakespeare Sonnet #18
Multiplication Tables
Pinocchio

INSPIRATION:

Education is for improving the lives of others and for leaving your community and world better than you found it.
~Marian Wright Edelman

IDEAS:

Lunchtime- Polite conversation allows for delightful relationships and development of joyful character between friends.
Bible- What is faith?
Handwork- Careful and precise puppets for a meaningful puppet show.

IMPORTANT DATES:

April 16 – Easter Sunday
April 19 – Puppet Show, 9am
April 24-27 – Exam Week – Early Dismissal, 1:00pm
April 28 – Parent’s Night Out at Shooters Grill, Time TBA
May 4 – National Day of Prayer, Students will be singing at 8:00am for MVC
May 5 – Skylark Scramble – Ball-drop tickets available in the school office

VOCABULARY your child has been introduced to through text:

Heroine, extemporary, extravagance, diplomomatic