

Class: Ms. Bowen

Date: January 2017

SPECIFIC SKILLS:

Mathematics- Methods of mental addition and subtraction to gain better skills in adding and subtracting larger numbers.
Literature- Beatrix Potter, The Complete Tales- Reading slowly as to hear and understand the written text.
Handwork- Beginning to work with sculpey clay to help develop fine motor skills needed for beautiful penmanship.

CONTENT:

Tales and Fables- George MacDonald
Poetry- William Shakespeare
Composer Study- Young Brahms
History- Abigail Adams

MEMORY WORK:

How Pleasant to Know Mr. Lear
Acts 9:10-18
Multiplication Tables

INSPIRATION:

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!

Corinthians 5:17 NIV

IDEAS:

Lunchtime- Polite conversation allows for delightful relationships and development of joyful character between friends.
Handwriting- Careful and thoughtful practice develops beautiful script and penmanship.
Composer Study- How to enjoy beautifully composed music and learn the dedication needed for this work.

IMPORTANT DATES:

Friday January 6th – Full Day of School
Wednesday January 11th – Parent Volunteer Association Meeting 6:30pm
Friday January 13th – Ice Skating, Glenwood Springs Rec Center
Monday January 16th – MLK – Full Day of School
Wednesday January 25th – Grandparents /Invite Friends to School Day 8:00am
Friday January 27th – Get Air Grand Junction

VOCABULARY your child has been introduced to through text: